

Bond Election For $115,000 High School is Carried

SONOMA VALLEY VOTERS WENT TO POLLS TUESDAY AND WON VICTORY FOR PROGRESS.

By a vote of 428 votes against 193 the people of Sonoma valley's ten high school districts registered last Tuesday their approval of the $115,000 bond issue for a handsome new high school building, construction on which will start early in 1922. The vote gave the two-thirds as required by law, with fourteen votes to spare. The election was spirited and all day long enthusiastic workers for the bonds, carried voters to the polling place at the high school, while people came from many remote places to cast their ballots. There had been considerable open opposition and written and printed literature circulated to beat the project, but the optimistic friends of education and believers in progress triumphed and Sonoma valley will get its badly needed modern accommodations for its fast-growing high school attendance.

One enthusiast got up at 4 a.m. and came all the way from Enterprise district to vote and to tell how he had exploded many of the figures and arguments of the opposition. Other loyal supporters came a long distance in the intense heat to do their duty by the union districts.

It was a great day, which closed with many congratulations to Prof. Goltz, the school trustee and other ardent workers for the bonds. Students paraded after the result had been announced, sounding their auto horns, ringing bells and otherwise celebrating their enthusiasm over the outcome.

RAILROAD COMMISSION HOLDS UP WATER MERGER

Refuses to Authorize $260,000 Bond Issue for Local Project.

Declaring the present outstanding stock out of proportion to the reasonable value of the company, the railroad commission refused permission to the Sonoma Water, Light and Power company to issue $260,000 of bonds to acquire other water companies. The commission announced that when the company shall have secured at least $100,000 from present or future stockholders, the bond issue will be authorized. According to the petition the company desires to purchase the Sonoma City water works, the Sonoma Vista water company and the O'Brien ranch of 900 acres. A dam at the junction of Lenoix and Carriger creeks was contemplated in the plans, with part of the O'Brien ranch to be used for storage.

The water merger had been promoted by R. Durham and W. Chester, owner of the Sonoma Valley Water, Light and Power Company.

Says the order:—It is hereby declared by the Railroad Commission of the State of California that it will not authorize Sonoma Valley Water, Light & Power Company to issue $260,000 of bonds for the purposes mentioned in the foregoing opinion, until said company has secured in cash at least $100,000 from its present or future stockholders. If the company intends to secure any of said $100,000 through the sale of stock, a proper application for permission to issue and sell stock must be filed with the Commission. When Sonoma Valley Water, Light & Power Company has secured at least $100,000 from present or future stockholders, the Commission will make the necessary order in this proceeding authorizing the issue and sale of bonds and transfer of the properties referred to in this application.

Well-Known Restaurant Man Succumbed to Fatal Malady in New York Last Week.

Steve Anazitos, who for many years conducted the popular restaurant, "Steve's Grill," at Boyes Springs, died in New York last week, where he was about to board a steamer for his native land, Greece. Steve left her a short time ago in the hope of recovering his health back in the home land over the sea. He was not destined to reach there and news of his passing was wired across the continent.

Anazitos gave up active business last year and went to Arizona for several months. Upon his return to Boyes he disposed of all his property and business and made up his mind to go back to the old country which he had left when a boy.

Deceased was 47 years of age and had been in business almost fifteen years in Sonoma valley. He was possessed of several thousand dollars at the time of his death.

The vote in Glen Ellen district was 54 in favor to 10 against consolidation, while Dunbar district voted 18 to 14 in favor. The vote in Kenwood, except that it carried, could not be learned. ## FIRE DEPARTMENTS KEPT BUSY OVER THE HOLIDAY

Serious Conflagrations and Loss to Sonoma Valley Property Prevented By Prompt and Heroic Work. Big Fire at Sonoma Vista Sunday.

The fire departments of Boyes Springs and Sonoma were kept exceedingly busy over the Fourth of July week end and were responsible for saving much property and averting several serious conflagrations.

The Boyes Springs department kept the following record, which shows the activity of the fire lads and Chief Cause beginning on Friday of last week:

Call to the Hall ranch, below Sonoma, 2:30 p.m. Friday.

Fought grain fire near Maxwell ranch 3:30 a.m. Saturday.

Call to Agua Caliente grass fire, near Cohen's store, 8:30 a.m. Sunday.

Alarm from Sonoma Vista, near S. P. railway track, where eight acres were burned over, but fire controlled at 11:30 a.m. Sunday.

Call to Sonoma Vista grass fire, 8 p.m. Sunday.

Call to Watriss & Seyres ranch, 10:30 a.m. Sunday.

Called to Boeen ranch Thursday.

Fought fire which started while department was at Watriss ranch by rushing engine to Sonoma Vista, where a fire, presumably from an engine spark, caused grass to catch, and before help arrived was sweeping over 160 acres between cottages and summer homes clear down to El Verano school house. All property saved except one-room shack.

Called to Eldridge, fire at State Home dairy, Sunday 6 p.m.

The Sonoma Vista fire of Sunday was very serious and at one time Chief George Cause found himself hemmed in by the flames and overcome by heat and smoke. He was quickly revived and went right back to the firing line.

Brandt ranch, valued at $3000, being destroyed.

Schottville was also the scene of a fire Sunday, hay and pasture on the Sonoma fire department responded whenever called on for assistance. It has been suggested that a more snappy hose and other equipment is needed by Chief Valente, that those who were not contributors to the fire engine fund send in their donations now, particularly any who have received help from the engine. A check for the fire fighters is always good form, particularly where there are no paid departments, as in Sonoma valley. Help the volunteer fire ladders, to keep up and add to their equipment.

Kennon Gilbert, high school student and cartoonist, is now a member of the Index-Tribune staff.

Sonoma Fire Engine Saved Dodge Residence

FLAMES ON FORMER HALL RANCH COMMUNICATE TO TWO-STORY HOUSE AND TIMELY ARRIVAL OF FIRE DEPARTMENT AVERTED GREAT LOSS

The fire at the Hall ranch on Friday afternoon of last week might have resulted in great loss but for the fact that Sonoma now has a motor driven fire apparatus which was rushed to the scene and promptly put out the flames, which had communicated to the house from a burning hedge. The hedge caught fire from a spark thrown out by a gasoline engine which was pumping water for irrigation purposes. The cypress row instantly was a burning mass, and, fanned by a hot wind, sparks fell upon the two-story residence near by, causing several serious flames to start. The workingmen and neighbors thought the house was doomed to destruction, when the Sonoma fire department arrived, and connecting up the apparatus with the water supply in the irrigation ditch soon had two good streams on the house. The Waterous did very effective work and was joined by the chemical from Boyes Springs, which helped put out menacing flames on and near the handsome residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Dodge were away at the time of the fire and only Mrs. Robert Carter and her brother were at home. They were very grateful for the assistance given in saving the property and all its handsome furnishings from destruction.

City Trustees Meet Wednesday

THE RAILROADS AND OUR HIGHWAYS

THE RIGHTS of railroads are justly set forth and plainly, too, in a recent address on "Transportation As a Factor in Business," delivered by Wm. Sprule before the National Association of Credit Men. Among interesting points of which the public should be apprised is the following:

"Within the states rates are controlled by each of those states and, of course, so are the taxes the railroads have to pay, but the state highways built by the state, and largely out of the taxes paid by the railroads, remain for the most part unregulated as to the users of those state highways."

"Thus, the railroad dedicated to public use, is regulated and taxed, while the state highway, also dedicated to public use by the state itself, is used free or for a nominal fee by carriers of freight and passenger and express traffic, competing with the railroads who have themselves been taxed to build those very highways."

"The railroads do not complain of the competition over these highways, but they have a right to complain of the unequal and unfair competition from users of these highways who contribute largely to their depreciation and to increased cost of maintenance of the highways competing with the railroads without paying anything but a nominal fee for that use. We can all take for granted the use of these highways under proper regulation. There can be no complaint as to that. The complaint runs against unfair competition in that the rail carriers who contribute so much out of their revenues to pay for these highways should not be required to face a competition which as to rates and taxes remains unregulated, with the further prospect that the rail carriers must again be taxed for the reconstruction and greater upkeep of these same highways because of this greater use."

A PROTEST TO BE RECKONED WITH

"THE Volstead Act Must Go!" was the slogan of thousands of people who marched in New York on the 4th of July to protest prohibition. It is the slogan of thousands all over the United States who were with the parade in spirit.

These people are not bootleggers or moonshiners. They number thousands of good citizens who deplore conditions brought about by the Volstead act, its ridiculous cost to the country and the treasury, its drain on the pocketbooks of those who believe it is their privilege to drink what they want rather than what is prescribed by lawmakers.

The setting aside of the sentiment of an entire state by a long-haired minority has aroused the Americanism of many a staid citizen.

The ludicrous performance of the Volstead operators running true to human form while posing as the infallible agents of a more perfect species, the spectacle of reformers in high places of advantage manifesting all the ghoulish instincts imaginable as they desert themselves in "dry" territory, has caused a wave of evident disgust to sweep the nation from one end to the other.

Stalwart Americans deplore the usurpation, the inundation of guarantees in our century revered Constitution through the hanging on of this eighteenth amendment, which depresses, not exalts, the spirit of this, the noblest of documents.

Law enforcement to the tune of millions, unprecedented law breaking, alarms the nation, which cannot help but realize that there is a rightful demand which no Volstead law can cope with, a desire for privileges which must be given or they will be taken. The sober-minded American is viewing the situation with alarm.

Where conditions exist as they do today the clamor for the nullification of such arrangements as Volsteadism will have to be reckoned with. Drunk with power Volsteadism is taking up all the road and spending a lot of Uncle Sam's money. How much longer will the people tolerate it?

THE APPOINTMENT of William Howard Taft to the office of Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court is meeting with the highest commendation all over the country. Taft is a man who has worn well and has demonstrated his state-manship and mental calibre in every exigency. That he will endow his high office with every attribute becoming it and at the same time humanize it is certain. Here is what the Oakland Tribune aptly says of Mr. Taft's auspicious coming into power.

"After all, the biggest and most solemn thing in the oath of office administered to the Chief Justice is the pledge to support and defend the Constitution. There is no ground for the fear that Mr. Taft will adopt a rule of negation and apply it arbitrarily to prevent the execution of legislation merely because it is not specifically authorized by the Constitution. That would not be in accordance with his temperament, his understanding or his open record. But he may be relied upon to stand for the upholding of the plain inhibitions of the Constitution. That he should do, for in no other way can the Constitution be preserved."

WE COMMENT the purchase of a fire engine to Sebastopol, the up-to-date community about to start a popular subscription for that purpose. Good luck, Sebastopol, and take it from us, that a fire engine more than pays for itself in a few weeks or months. The first fire engine had after acquiring its engine was at the business place of a $100 subscriber to the good cause who declared that it was the best hundred he ever spent. The next fire was in a wheat field where several hundred dollars worth of grain was saved, and during the past week, the engine saved a $20,000 residence from certain destruction but for its prompt arrival. No community can afford to be without a fire engine.

A PROMINENT national figure in Democratic political circles announces that "no entangling alliances" will be the motto of the rejuvenated Democratic party some years hence. At the same time some of the big Republican appointments have gone to avowed believers in some kind of an arrangement with other nations to preserve world peace. While Democrats are fishing with their dangling alliances, the Republicans are settling down to business and public sentiment is being put into effect with expedition and an intelligent understanding of the need and desire of the people.

THE VICTORY of the high school bonds is a victory for education. It proves that the present generation of voters are exercising their intelligence and not taking programs from self-appointed leaders or pre-historic alarmists. The more advantages forthcoming from properly equipped schools, the more thinking-for-themselves people will do and the better off communities will be.

We believe the new high school will justify itself from the start and that all will come to see the wisdom of the people's vote last Tuesday.

EXNICIOS, the ousted "try" agent, has been offered a place in the "flying squadron" of "dry" agents at Washington. Just as we feared, those squadrons have already sprouted wings and are "flying."

DEATH CALLS BROTHER OF MRS. S. CARMER

Tom B. Wilson, one of the best known and most highly esteemed residents of Cloverdale, died at his home in that city Thursday after many years of invalidism. He was first stricken with paralysis about eight years ago and since then had suffered repeated attacks, but was able to rally and get around until about three or four months ago he was finally confined to his bed and has gradually been growing worse until death relieved his sufferings.

Mr. Wilson was a native of New Zealand, 60 years of age. He came to this country many years ago and settled in Cloverdale, where he was engaged in business for a number of years. He was appointed postmaster by President Taft, serving four years. As director general of the Cloverdale citrus fair for many years he was known far and wide, and much of the success of the annual citrus fair was due to his untiring efforts on its behalf year after year.

He served Cloverdale as city clerk for many years and was also constable of the township for many years. As an official he was brave and fearless and always did his duty without fear or favor.

A devoted wife, Mrs. Annie Wilson, survives. Also a son, William B. of El Segundo, Cal.; and two daughters, Mrs. Louise Butler and Mrs. Elaine Palmer, both of Cloverdale. He leaves three brothers, Robert J. of San Jose, Percy J. of San Francisco, and H. J. Wilson, of San Pedro; and four sisters, Mrs. C. R. Fontana, Dixon; Mrs. S. W. Carmor, Sonoma; Miss Louise Wilson, Berkeley and Miss Agnes B. Wilson.

The funeral was at Cloverdale, with cremation at Oakland.

The Flying Needles will not meet until September, the first meeting after vacation being at the home of Mrs. L. Breitenbach.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Groshopf of Vallejo were up to Vineburg for the Fourth, going from there to Sacramento.

Miss Henrietta Weber of San Francisco and a party of friends spent the Fourth at Pacific Grove.

Joe McMullen, baseball expert and employee of Spaulding's athletic concern in San Francisco, was here for the Fourth.

Parente Tavern Crowded

Parente Tavern, El Verano's handsome new resort, was crowded over the Fourth of July week end. The guests enjoyed the excellent cuisine and cabaret dance provided by Louis Parente, proprietor, who, with his wife, was on hand to personally look after the comfort and enjoyment of their guests.

Mr. Parente has expended a lot of money on his up-to-date new resort in the Valley of the Moon, but declares he is catering to the public who want the best and regard Sonoma valley an ideal recreation place. He predicts greater popularity than ever for this section just as quickly as more modern accommodations are provided.

Toutjeans orchestra and entertainers are features at the Tavern.

Harry Burmester, who is attending summer school at Berkeley, has been confined to the infirmary for several days on account of a felon which developed blood poisoning.

Dr. Skinner, Sonoma's new dentist, had a visit over the Fourth from his father, who is a resident of Oakland. The senior Skinner was in Sonoma valley some years ago, when he installed the pumping plant at Boyes Springs.

Miss Laura Wickham has returned from a visit to Dr. and Mrs. Whittington in Placer county. The doctor, who was formerly at the State Home, Eldridge, is now medical director of the big sanitarium at Weimar. A fire a short time ago destroyed some of the buildings, but aside from that the doctor has everything in excellent shape and is maintaining the institution on splendid lines.

Miss Carrie Burlingame leaves the coming week for the annual outing of the Sierra Club. Tuolumne Meadows and the Yosemite will be visited by the nature lovers.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Duhring came up from San Francisco to cast their ballots at the high school bond election.

Miss Opal Hays, Berkeley teacher, is the guest of her brother, Dr. W. B. Hays.

Young Artist to Leave Sonoma

Miss Tamara Lawb, the talented Russian ballet dancer, who has been residing here for some months and conducting classes, is to leave Sonoma with her parents the coming week and will go to San Francisco to reside. She may later resume her classes here if sufficient pupils enroll to justify her coming.

Miss Lawb was a pupil of the royal ballet school at Petrograd and while she was presented with a shawl woven with real gold threads in token of her instructor's esteem for her splendid performances. At the coming of the Bolshevik trouble in Russia Miss Lawb was about to begin a contract to dance in the noted theatres of Italy, but with her parents was forced to flee for their lives after all their property had been confiscated. They made their way to America and shortly afterward came to Sonoma, where Miss Lawb gave her first American recital. She has contributed her talent to several entertainments while here and her leave-taking is much regretted by many friends and admirers.

The young artist may go into vaudeville, as she has several flat-tering contracts under consideration.

It is rumored that a prominent resident of Sonoma valley who took a wife a short time ago has been deserted by his bride.

Fred Meyer and Al Warriner were two well-known visitors here over the Fourth.

A "Dry" Joke

Congressman C. F. Lea of Washington has sent a novel souvenir from the national capital to one of his Sonoma friends. It consists of a miniature plug of chewing tobacco with the inscription, "Denatured with tar-tar emetic. Present to Mr. Volstead." A note accompanying the souvenir explains that recently during a session of Congress, Volstead was seen to take a man's size chew of a big plug of tobacco. The spectacle caused some wag to mail out the miniature chews to all congressmen, admonishing them to treat the reformer to the denatured chew.

Elmer Rambo and Bride Here

Elmer Rambo and Miss Lillian Barnhart, an illustrator for the Owl Drug Company, were married in Redwood City last Saturday and came here on their honeymoon. Mr. Rambo is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rambo of this place and brother of Mrs. Irene Seawell. He is connected with an adding machine company of San Francisco, and in that city the young people will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Agnew of Petaluma and a party of friends motored to the Petrified Forest Sunday and from there drove down to Agua Caliente baths, where they enjoyed a swim.

J. Halstead of Vineburg has been enjoying an outing over at the coast.

RED CROWN GASOLINE

The Gasoline of Quality

THE remarkable engineering skill which built the Columbia River Highway opened a veritable paradise for motorists.

This highway follows the Columbia River from the Pacific Ocean—near Astoria—as far east as The Dalles, and leads the tourist through a country of indescribable scenic interest—high waterfalls, huge rocks, picturesque woods—an ideal vacation land for the motorist who appreciates nature at its best.

And on your travels along the Columbia River Highway you can always get "Red Crown," the gasoline of quality—an all-refinery gasoline with a continuous chain of boiling points.

Look for the Red Crown sign before you fill.

Farewell Evening to Teacher

Miss Alice Young was given a reception at Watnaugh school last Saturday evening in honor of her splendid service to the district she is leaving for a better position. Miss Young was the recipient of a cut glass bowl and other gifts. Mrs. C. C. Chaplin, Mrs. George Campbell, Mrs. Randolph and others arranged a delightful evening for the beloved teacher and Rae Hunter of Sonoma gave a little address on Sonoma's good fortune in adding Miss Young to the faculty of the Sonoma grammar school.

Newcomers to Sonoma Valley

C. E. McGrath of Sacramento has purchased some Sonoma valley acreage in the Lehrke tract and later on will come here to reside. Mr. McGrath is a progressive man and will be a decided acquisition to the community.

George D. Valencia of Richmond has purchased the Larue place.

Oscar Carlson and Nels Peterson of Oakland have bought the Comstock place at El Verano.

Sam Sebastiani has added to his extensive holdings by buying the five-acre Herman place, adjoining his property.

The above sales were consummated by W. W. Carter this week.

Will Move to Oakland

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Dodge leave here on July 15th for Oakland, where they will make their future home. Mr. Dodge is the manager of the Oakland branch of the California Simulating company's plant. It is a business of the automobile industry and has to do with the finishing of new and refinishing of used cars. The company has a good location on Oakland's automobile row near the Key Route Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodge will be greatly missed here, where they have taken a prominent part in social affairs since their marriage last August.

Mayor Dal Pogetto III

Mayor Charles Dal Pogetto was unable to preside at the trustees regular meeting Wednesday on account of an infection which developed following an injury to one of his fingers. He was under the care of Dr. Hays.

News from Dr. Lynn MacQuiddy

Dr. MacQuiddy is an overseas veteran of the world war, son of Mr. and Mrs. MacQuiddy of this place and brother of Mrs. C. C. Bean.

Enforcement Officer Here

Looking for evidence of law violations an enforcement officer swooped down on the valley on the Fourth and succeeded in locating a bottle of wine at the Lark. No other resorts were disturbed.

The big holiday crowds were taken care of in an orderly and commendable manner. There was but little rowdiness anywhere and Deputy Sheriff Ryan reports only minor offenses.

Member of Pioneer Family Dies

Mrs. Sarah Kelsey, who was one of the Wratten family, pioneer residents of Sonoma, passed away this week at her home in El Verano, aged 77 years. Deceased leaves two sons to mourn her passing.

The Wratten place was for many years the home of the E. K. Stevens and is one of the landmarks of the western limits of the town.

Sganzini Sells Creamery Interest

Vella and Icons of the Sonoma Creamery have bought out the interest of C. Sganzini in the business. Mr. Sganzini will devote his entire attention to his ranch and dairy business. The creamery is in a flourishing condition and pays higher prices for products than some of our neighboring cities. As a result even Napa ranchers come to Sonoma with their milk and cream.
